

IMPACT OFFICER – FULL TIME – PARIS

Moringa Partnership (<https://www.moringapartnership.com/>), a subsidiary of Edmond de Rothschild, is an impact investment team specialized on the financing of the agro-ecology transition. It currently manages the Moringa Fund, a €84m private equity vehicle dedicated to agroforestry companies in Africa and Latin America, and the Agroforestry Technical Assistance Facility (ATAF). The Moringa Fund is invested in 10 portfolio companies.

Moringa is implementing best-in-class ESG and impact practices. This includes relevant policies and certifications at the level of the funds and the investees (IFC Performance Standard, FAO/OECD/ITO guidelines, Organic, Fair Trade, etc.).

Moringa is hiring its Impact & ESG Officer.

Responsibilities

- Management of the funds ESG and impact standards
- Assessment of environmental, social and governance performance of investees at all stages (due diligence, portfolio, exits)
- Support investees in the enhancements of their ESG practices
- Reporting to investors
- Conduct research/analysis on ESG policies and environmental markets (with a focus on climate and biodiversity)
- Management of technical assistance projects (fund raising, operations)
- Contribution to stakeholder's engagement and communication

Qualifications

- (5+)-year experience in the management of environmental and social systems
- Master's degree, preferably in a related field such as environmental science/policy, agriculture, forestry, natural resources management, impact finance
- Strong autonomy, adaptability; team player
- Excellent communication skills
- Knowledge of collaborative and digital tools
- Work experience in emerging countries
- Fluent in French and English, capacities in Spanish/Portuguese is a strong asset

Key Conditions

The Impact Manager will directly work under the supervision of the Managing Director. She/he will be in close relationship with the management of the portfolio companies.

Full time position (CDI – Contrat à Durée Indéterminée) based in Paris with significant home office possibilities; regular international travels.

Process

Please send CV and cover letter to careers@moringapartnership.com with the subject title "Application: Impact Manager".