

CFO – FULL TIME – PARIS

Moringa Partnership (<https://www.moringapartnership.com/>), an Edmond de Rothschild Private Equity Franchise, is an impact investment team specialized on the financing of the agro-ecology transition. It currently manages the Moringa Fund, a €84m vehicle dedicated to agroforestry companies in Africa and Latin America, and the Agroforestry Technical Assistance Facility (ATAF). The Moringa Fund is invested in 10 portfolio companies.

Moringa is hiring its CFO.

Responsibilities

- Management of the funds financial processes
- Providing strategic management of the accounting and finance functions
- Directing accounting policies, procedures, and internal controls
- Recommending improvements to ensure the integrity of the fund's financial information
- Managing and overseeing the relationship with independent auditors
- Review of all financials related to the M&A transactions of the funds
- Supporting portfolio's investments financial departments to implement best practices
- Overseeing financial systems implementations and upgrades
- Managing relationships with investors and investment institutions and reporting requirements
- Identifying and managing business risks and insurance requirements
- Managing skilled accounting and finance staff

Qualifications

- (10+)-year experience in accounting, financial functions, M&A transactions
- Strong analytical and strategic planning skills, including an ability to work well with the CEO, board members and other senior managers
- Strong autonomy, adaptability; team player
- Excellent communication skills
- Knowledge of collaborative and digital tools
- Work experience in emerging countries
- Fluent in French and English, capacities in Spanish/Portuguese is a strong asset

Key Conditions

The CFO will directly work under the supervision of the CEO. She/he will be in close relationship with the management of the portfolio companies.

Full time position (CDI – Contrat à Durée Indéterminée) based in Paris with significant home office possibilities; regular international travels.

Process

Please send CV and cover letter to careers@moringapartnership.com with the subject title "Application: CFO".